A Special View of Horse Show Millinery

O-DAY we exhibit new Millinery styles, brought out for the New York Horse Show, and which are especially suitable for the races, the opera, restaurant wear, &c.

The New York Horse Show is always counted an important event in the realm of style. Here fashion displays itself at the greatest degree of perfection. New ideas are brought out and many charming styles designed especially for the Horse Show. Our representatives visited this style show, and have returned with the best of new things, and today, in our Millinery Salon, will be a special showing of new Hats.

The Horse Show brought out two distinctly new hats-a broad round sailor—the largest sailor we have ever known. The brim is the Mrs. Newberry, was presented to society same width all around, and has no bandeau. These Sailors are trimmed with fur bands, plumes, roses, wired bows of hemmed velvet, great bows of maline or net, &c., &c. The other new Hat is a large hat, of course. The brim rolls from the side and has a decided tilt-up Newberry and her daughter received their

The Horse Show demonstrated that satin hats, especially yellow satin hats, are to be a factor in winter millinery. Also that a great deal of lynx fur is to be used in trimming smart hats.

You are cordially invited to inspect these new Hats. Second floor-Tenth st.
